Hi Tuhin,

You've made it to the final step of the TKS application—the video submission.

To be clear, we want you to get into TKS.

Many application journeys leave you guessing, but at TKS, we do things differently.

TKS students created a guide that shares exactly what we look for in interviews. You'll have the insights you need—but creating a standout video is up to you. With a 10-15% acceptance rate, it's competitive. We hope it helps you present your strongest application. Check it out:
