Hi Jen,

Thank you so much for the $3,250 financial aid and for accepting me into TKS. I'm deeply honored and incredibly excited about this opportunity.

However, I'm writing this with a heavy heart. Despite the generous aid, I want to be fully transparent: my family cannot afford the $500 deposit or the monthly $214 payments.

In the financial aid application, I unintentionally misrepresented my family's income. I had calculated our annual income as ₹1,58,000 x 12 based on last month's bank statement, but my parents have since informed me that this amount was a one-time bonus—not the actual salary. My father's real monthly income is ₹1,00,000, which is approximately $1,175. We live on a limited income here in India, and even the initial payment is simply not feasible for us, as we live paycheck to paycheck with mortgage and car payments.

That said, I'm deeply committed to being part of TKS. I've always pursued learning and innovation however I could—working on tech, AI, building projects, and striving to make a real difference in the world. If there's any way to waive the $500 deposit, convert it into full tuition coverage, or offer an alternate arrangement—such as contributing through projects, managing social media, or a deferred payment plan—I would be incredibly grateful and ready to give everything I have.

The main reason I'm so eager to join TKS is because I crave a community of like-minded individuals. To be honest, where I live and the school I attend, I haven't found anyone I truly connect with. I often feel like a lone wolf—isolated, without a strong sense of community. TKS could uplift my spirit and amplify my growth in unimaginable ways. I've given my all to what I believe in, and being part of this community would make that journey ten times more meaningful. This opportunity could truly change my life, and I don't want finances to be the reason I miss out.

Thank you again for believing in me. Please consider this request.

Warm regards,
Tuhin Sarkar
